

have a look at things for yourself, and you will decide what is best to be done."

During the morning they proceeded to unload the boat of all that it contained, the bag of biscuit, the casks, the fuel, the utensils, and the clothing, and everything was carried within the cave.
The little stove was set up in the corner of the bastion, and was first employed in making the turtle soup.

As for Captain Gould, he was carried to the cave by Fritz and the boatswain; a comfortable bed was waiting ready for him, made of dry seaweed by Jenny and Dolly, and there he was able to enjoy several hours<sup>3</sup> sleep.
